

HYE PARK
and LUNE SPRING 2014

HYE PARK and LUNE

Hye Park and Lune is a collection of casual, luxury clothing designed by international cover girl, Hye Park, under the Lune brand.

A jet-setting supermodel,
Hye seamlessly transforms into the girl-next-door once her feet leave the runway.

Hye brings to Lune a fresh perspective as a designer and model, having worked with designers, such as Dolce & Gabbana, Roberto Cavalli, Prada, Miu Miu, and Hermes. She has a natural inclination toward high quality and excellent taste. However, she understands the need for simplicity and comfort, especially in the clothes we wear.

Her new collection was designed with the quintessential girl-on-the-go in mind.

Its versatile pieces make for an effortless transition from day to night. Simple, yet chic, comfortable, yet opulent, Hye Park and Lune is an essential collection of éclat, everyday wear.
