

ISABELLE ARMSTRONG

Fall Collection 2015

Splendor
of Passion
Grace

A woman with brown hair styled in an updo is shown from the back, looking over her shoulder. She is wearing a white, sleeveless gown with a large, open back featuring intricate beaded and sequined designs that resemble a floral or vine pattern. The gown has a fitted silhouette. She is standing in a forest with trees and autumn-colored leaves in the background.

Inspiration

This collection came to life during a visit to the Hotel Metropole of Monte Carlo, a luxurious structure embodying history, character, and immeasurable splendor. It is a place where over casual conversation, one can conceptualize a princess, such as our favorite fashion icon, Grace Kelly, hosting a large gala attended by impeccably dressed men and women. It is easy to envision Princess Grace captivating an audience of admiring guests while wearing a spectacular gown of waterfall pleats with whispers of tulle flowing down her back.

We are fascinated by the image of what she could have worn while maneuvering a crowd in such a regal setting. Draped pleats cascading down the curve of her elegant shape, sheer, flowing trains of lace or skirts that blossomed from her tiny waist are just a few of the endless possibilities.

Isabelle Armstrong proudly presents our tribute to the eternally fabulous Grace Kelly...our Fall 2015 collection of timeless designs, beautifully draped silks, delicate laces and textured fabrics speaks to the splendor, passion and grace that defines her enduring and distinguished persona.
